Public Authority is represented by Dr. S.L. Nag, SDM&HO, Bilasipara accompanied by Dr. M.A. Rahman , i/c Bilasipara, SHC.

Appellant Md. Saman Ali Seikh is present.

Appellant Md. Saman Ali Seikh has stated that against the information sought on 10 items through his RTI application, he had received incomplete information relating to some of them. Representing the Public Authority Dr. S.L. Nag submitted that they had actually furnished the information on all the items excepting for item No. 10 which was partial and explained in details the position relating to these items. On being explained each of the items Appellant was satisfied on the condition that he would be given an opportunity to inspect the original documents in the concerned office and that the remaining information relating to item No. 10 will be furnished to him. The public Authority submitted that he would furnish specific information relating to electricity bills of Doctors and staff in the hospital which had not been furnished as part of the information on item No. 10.

The Second Appeal is hereby disposed of with the direction to the Public Authority to (a) facilitate inspection of original documents by Appellant, and (b) furnish the remaining information relating to item No. 10.

This order may be complied within a period of 30 days from the date of receipt of this order.
