Case No. : KP(M).608 /2013
Complainant/ appellant : Shri Dulal Bora
Respondent : Director of Sericulture, Assam

O R D E R
21.3.2016

Seen the petition dtd 31.8.15 of Shri Dulal Bora complaining of non-compliance of this Commission's order dtd 18.11.13 by the SPIO of the office of the Director of Sericulture, Govt. of Assam.

From records available with this Commission it is seen that the SPIO of the Directorate of Sericulture, Assam had furnished detailed information to the petitioner vide letter dtd SDP.86/2005/Pt-IV/16/723 dtd 2.12.13, copy of which was already endorsed to this Commission, which was received in the Commission's office. The complaint petition of Shri Dulal Bora, therefore, appears to be without any basis and without any merit. Hence it is dismissed.

It has been observed that Shri Dulal Bora has been submitting a large number of petitions in a mechanical manner complaining of non-compliance of this Commission's order by various Public Authorities. Quite a few of them have turned out to be frivolous and without any merit as it appears from the case records that the Commission's orders were already complied with by the Public Authorities.

The petitioner Shri Dulal Bora is therefore, directed to verify his own records before filing such frivolous complaint petitions which take away considerable time of this Commission, besides delay in hearing of pending cases filed by other RTI applicants.

He is also directed to verify appeal petitions and complaint petitions already filed by him and withdraw those which are found to have been submitted more than once, i.e. multiple applications for the same information, and hence superfluous.
